

CENTER FOR GENDER & REFUGEE STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW

SUMMER 2010 LAW CLERK POSITIONS

The Center for Gender and Refugee Studies (CGRS), one of the nation's leading refugee advocacy organizations, is seeking full-time Judith Stronach Women's Rights Fellows for summer, 2010. The Center, which is based at UC Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco, works to advance women's human rights by focusing on gender-based asylum and broader migration and refugee policies, both in the U.S. and internationally.

The law clerks will be involved in the full range of CGRS's work, including research and writing on key legal issues, appellate advocacy, involvement in international human rights projects, the preparation of expert witness affidavits, and national policy work.

For more information on CGRS, see: <<http://cgrs.uchastings.edu/>>

Experience or background in asylum law is required. Experience with related areas, such as international human rights law or women's rights, should be mentioned. Fluency in Spanish is desirable, but not required. Please indicate eligibility for work study, as well as prospects for securing external funding.

The position runs for 10 weeks during summer 2010.

Interested applicants should mail or fax a cover letter and resume to:

Center for Gender and Refugee Studies (summer law clerk position)
UC Hastings College of the Law
200 McAllister Street
San Francisco, CA 94102

Fax: 415/ 581-8824

All applications must be received by 5:00 pm, November 20, 2009.

The cover letter should also describe how the applicant's background is relevant to an organization committed to diversity in all respects. CGRS is an equal opportunity employer (EOE). All qualified persons including people of color, women, lesbians and gay men are encouraged to apply.

Please no phone calls; no applications by email.
