

CENTER FOR
Gender & Refugee
STUDIES

Fall 2017 Communications and Development Intern

The Center for Gender & Refugee Studies (CGRS) is one of the nation's leading organizations protecting the fundamental human rights of refugee women, children and LGBT individuals fleeing gender-based violence and discrimination. We seek to advance sound gender asylum laws and policies, helping advocates successfully represent refugees who need protection while at the same time mitigating the conditions that force individuals to flee their home countries.

Job Description

CGRS seeks a talented undergraduate or recent graduate intern to serve as our Communications and Development Intern to help build public awareness and support for the Center's work. The intern will gain hands-on experience in a small nonprofit work environment and the satisfaction of contributing to an organization that defends refugee and immigrant rights. Projects will include:

- Researching our asylum case records to identify attorneys accessing our services
- Coordinating outreach to law firms to increase law firm support for CGRS
- Supporting CGRS's funds development efforts
- Expanding CGRS's social media reach
- Assisting with CGRS's website updates

These projects will increase public awareness and financial support for CGRS and bolster our capacity to provide technical assistance for attorneys representing asylum seekers. Given our small office and high volume of work, we give interns a high degree of responsibility from the start. Accordingly, interns must be motivated, responsible, and able to work with minimal supervision.

Qualifications

- Availability of 10+ hours per week for a minimum of 8 weeks
- Excellent writing and copy-editing skills
- Strong interest in human rights and social justice issues
- Current enrollment in an undergraduate program or a recent graduate
- Ability to work independently and within a team
- Ability to protect the confidentiality of our work and our communications

Funding

Although we are unable to offer stipends for interns, we will be able to work with students to obtain school credit or outside funding, if available.
